Autostat of pertinent information on PAPANACE attached

4. The Mexicans, on the other hand, most of whom have adopted the Roman Catholic creed, are on very good terms with the Vatican, chiefly through Monsignor Alois TALTU. TALTU is on very good terms with Augustin POFA. () claims that in a letter to TALTU, POFA asked him for news about "brother ()".

The Mexicans also have relationships with the MSI (Movimento Sociale Italiano). Most of the Mexicans in Italy are Rumanians of Macedonian origin. The Macedo-Rumanians were known as the best disciplined, the most determined and the most rugged Legionaries, who furnished to the Legionary Movement a great number of executioners.

5. The leading Mexicans in Italy are:

- a. Constantin PAPANACE, a Legionary Commandant and former Undersecretary of State for the Finance Ministry, presently living in Rome.
- b. (Mr.) CUTUBELA (Cotnamila), assistant Legionary Commandant, former Legionary chief of the 3rd Sector of Bucharest, also living in Rome.
- c. Nicolae CONSTANTINESCU, living at Bagnoli.
- d. Prof. Dr. Dumitru St. MARIN, lecturer on the Romanian Language at the Bari University.
